

Farm Transfer Workshop: Estate Planning, Health Care, and Generational Transition in Turbulent Times

9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
Wednesday, March 31, 2010

Fireside Inn and Suites
25 Airport Rd. West Lebanon, NH

Sponsored by:
UVM Extension
UNH Cooperative Extension

With funding from the Northeast Center for Risk Management Education

Topics:
Retirement in Turbulent Times
Current Estate Tax Laws
Health Care Laws and Medicaid

Speakers:
Mike Sciabarrasi, UNH
Bob Parsons, UVM
Daphne Moritz, Estate Planning and Elder Law Attorney

UNIVERSITY of NEW HAMPSHIRE COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

The RMA provides risk management and financial tools to Vermont's farmers with information through education and outreach programs. More information is available at: www.rma.usda.gov

Program: Estate Planning, Health Care, and Generational Transition in Turbulent Times

9:00-9:30 - Registration

9:30-10:00 - Retirement in Turbulent Times

10:00-10:45 - Estate Tax Laws and Planning

10:45-11:00 - Break

11:00-12:00 – The Challenge of Bringing in the Next Generation

12.00-1:00 - Lunch provided

1:00-2:30 – Medicare, Long Term Care, Medicaid, and Trusts

2:30-3:00 – Farmer Experience – How we did or didn't do it

Estate Planning for Farmers in Turbulent Times: Retirement, Healthcare, and Generational Transition

March 31, 2010 Fireside Inn and Suites, 25 Airport Rd. West Lebanon, NH

Name(s): _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Fee: $20 First family member) _____ X $20 = $ _____

Additional Family Members _____ X $10 = $ _____

Total number attending _____ Total $ _____

Mail registration to:

Bob Parsons

University of Vermont

204A Morrill Hall

Burlington, VT 05405-0106

Registrations Due March 26, 2010

Or phone in:

Bob Parsons -802-656-2109 or bob.parsons@uvm.edu

Mike Sciabarrasi – 603-862-3234 or mike.sciabarrasi@unh.edu